Under 70 is a Baby to Bucks of Bath

UNDER 70 MEANS A BABY TO BUCKS OF BATH

Parker Buck, 81; Wilson Buck, 79, and Miles Buck, 77, shown in that order above, are brothers whose homes stand three-in-a-row at Bath, Ont. The Buck family is of United Empire Loyalist stock. Parker is a farmer, has been married 60 years, has 11 married children, 35 to 40 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. Wilson, a blacksmith, has been married 59 years, has five sons, all married and three of them living in Toronto. Miles is a farmer. Mrs. Miles Buck is 75. They have two sons, three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Besides the brothers in the picture there is a fourth, Roy, 75, at Rochester, N.Y., and a sister, Mrs. J. H. Babcock, 72, living with her 75-year-old husband at Odessa, Ont. Sat. Nov. 12, 1938

14 Years Mariner

and all that went with it were proud to be aboard again."

During the four and one-half years Fiddes was aboard the Strathdon he studied seamanship and navigation in spare time and fine weather.

Of four times around the Horn, only once was the sea calm. "It was like a lake that time. The worst gale was encountered on the second trip. It was close to midnight when we went aloft to furl the topgallant sails. My chum slipped up there and fell into the sea. There was nothing we could do. The next day we met on deck, and the captain read a short passage from the Bible and said a few words. That was all."

WHEN Fiddes left the Strathdon he went as a passenger to San Francisco. There he joined the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's ship Peru as quartermaster and sailed for China. Unable to obtain United States citizenship because five years' residence was required and, therefore, unable to write for a second mate's certificate, he went to British Columbia and shipped as quartermaster out of Victoria on the Empress of India.

On a subsequent voyage he got a job as second mate on a coastal steamer. It was on the China coast that he worked his way up to first mate and eventually obtained his master's certificate.

HE then joined the Canadian Pacific's Mount Eage and on this passenger steamer his friendship with the ship's doctor led to his decision to study medicine. Returning to the place of his birth, he entered the University of Aberdeen at 28. From 1914 to 1918 he was a navigating officer in the British navy.

Re-entering the university at the close of the war, he was graduated in 1920, entered practice, went back to university as an assistant professor of physiology, then to Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in cursive script. The text is faint and mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. It appears to be a formal or semi-formal communication, possibly dated in the late 19th or early 20th century. The text is organized into several paragraphs, with some lines indented. The ink is dark but very faded, making it difficult to discern specific words or names. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-preserved but faded manuscript.

With Noble Parenage

The Histories of Several U. E. Loyalists in the Township of Kingston.

Kingston Township is the home of many descendants of the U. E. Loyalists, and in this centenary year it is fitting to refer to them. Prominent among the persons who landed here with his parents at the outbreak of the Revolutionary war was George Buck, whose grandson Thomas Buck is Deputy Reeve of the Township, who lives on the homestead established by his grandfather. The old home is on lot 2 in the 4th concession, and here Mrs. Buck, a U. E. Loyalist, still lives. Thomas Buck is the son of George Buck, Jr., and grandson of George Buck, who fled from the States. George Buck, Sr., was born in 1770 and came to this country when very young. His father settled at Collinsbury and virtually "hewed a home out of the wilderness." Here George grew to manhood. He married Hannah Shook, and heaven blessed the union with six boys and three girls, only two of whom survive

— Martin Buck, of Bath, and Frederick Buck, of Battersea, both advanced in years. George Buck, Sr., died in 1850, aged 86 years. His wife followed her partner across the river in 1864 at the advanced age of 91 years. The father of Thomas Buck was born in 1796. He succeeded his father as owner of the estate and married Phoebe Orser, a U. E. Loyalist descendant. He died in 1876, aged 82 years. There were nine children, seven boys and two girls, six of whom survive, among them being Thomas Buck, the county councillor, who has quite a large family. Mr. Buck is most comfortably located and is highly esteemed throughout the Township. His grandparents had nine children, seven of whom married, and now the record

Loyalist Claim Montreal, Feb. 20, 1788

1090. Claim of Geo. Buck, late of Tryon Co. lodged in England by Capt. Gomersal.

Michael Grass, Wits.

Says Claimant has met with an accident lately which has made him quite a cripple & he is unable to travel to Montreal.

He is a native of Germany — Came to America quite a child — lived in Tryon Co. He was then a cripple and could not serve, but he was very loyal. Went to Canada in 81 on acct of his loyalty. He was driven from his farm by the Rebels.
He now resides at Cataraqui.

Witness speaks very favourably of him.

He had no land of his own but was on hired land. He lost a Horse & a Colt & Cow & some grain. Witness remembers that he had the Horse, Colt & Cow & thinks that he lost them by being driven from his Place. He came into Canada helpless & strait of all his Property.

Box 112, Bath, 12 Oct 75

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

Many thanks for your letter of Sept 21 - I am still trying to sort out the information and fit it into my records. If only the Buicks had not been so prolific they would have simplified matters a hundred or more years later. But then, on second thought, perhaps it was just as well. I might not be here now to try and record it or even heard of H. C. Burleigh - the U & L estate. I just recently received a long list of relatives in fairly complete form from a daughter of my mother's brother - Fred - and this helped with the new generations. Up until now, I did not know they even existed.

On our return from P.E.I. in September, I had a letter waiting from a far distant cousin in Rochester who is trying to trace the Young family so we have started the usual correspondence. Since she had no idea where they originated, I have given her a start with the hopes that she will carry on. The ulterior motive is, of course, hoping that she has more ambition than I since I, as you know, and have mentioned several times, could use considerably more.

However we were in Fonda last week and visited the records office there. I think the trip down was the more rewarding since the country was beautiful and, being the camper, we wandered. Visited your old areas, went down through Upper Lake, took pictures of the old Palatine church north of Palatine Bridge and really enjoyed those old villages. The record office at Fonda is not large but is fairly comprehensive and I found I can add a new spelling to Buck namely Back and Book. It is rather difficult to fit the information into my picture but, since I am slightly in a state of confusion, a little more won't hurt. I have yet to type it up and I have a copy of records taken from the Lutheran Church, Fort Plain, Town of Minden, Montgomery County, N.Y. They show one Georg Back and wife Jenny (nee Canine) with two children Nettie May and Alma G. Since these were born in 1876 and 1879 there may be a connection but I fail to see it. These were certainly listed under the name of Buck and were given to me as members of the Buck family by the curator. I did discover that one George M. Buck lives in East St. Louis so will try and get in touch with him since he was the originator of the above information.

On Wednesday Art Bell and I copied the Cassallen grave yard and had a very rewarding day since we did a thorough job and made a few finds. For myself, I hope it is the forerunner of more visits and explorations.

Hope to see you Saturday

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) and (2) under the conditions (3) and (4). It is shown that the system has a solution if and only if the conditions (5) and (6) are satisfied.

2. In the second part of the paper, the problem of the uniqueness of the solution of the system (1) and (2) is considered. It is shown that the system has a unique solution if and only if the conditions (7) and (8) are satisfied.

3. In the third part of the paper, the problem of the stability of the solution of the system (1) and (2) is considered. It is shown that the system has a stable solution if and only if the conditions (9) and (10) are satisfied.

4. In the fourth part of the paper, the problem of the asymptotic stability of the solution of the system (1) and (2) is considered. It is shown that the system has an asymptotically stable solution if and only if the conditions (11) and (12) are satisfied.

5. In the fifth part of the paper, the problem of the boundedness of the solution of the system (1) and (2) is considered. It is shown that the system has a bounded solution if and only if the conditions (13) and (14) are satisfied.

6. In the sixth part of the paper, the problem of the periodicity of the solution of the system (1) and (2) is considered. It is shown that the system has a periodic solution if and only if the conditions (15) and (16) are satisfied.

7. In the seventh part of the paper, the problem of the ergodicity of the solution of the system (1) and (2) is considered. It is shown that the system has an ergodic solution if and only if the conditions (17) and (18) are satisfied.

8. In the eighth part of the paper, the problem of the mixing of the solution of the system (1) and (2) is considered. It is shown that the system has a mixing solution if and only if the conditions (19) and (20) are satisfied.

9. In the ninth part of the paper, the problem of the entropy of the solution of the system (1) and (2) is considered. It is shown that the system has a solution with finite entropy if and only if the conditions (21) and (22) are satisfied.

10. In the tenth part of the paper, the problem of the information content of the solution of the system (1) and (2) is considered. It is shown that the system has a solution with finite information content if and only if the conditions (23) and (24) are satisfied.

LAUGHLIN-BUCK 1938

On Wednesday, December 21 at high noon a very interesting and pretty wedding took place at Lake View Lodge the home of the bride, when Mrs. Lillian Maude Buck, eldest daughter of Mr. W. H. Vrooman and the late Mrs. Vrooman, became the bride of Mr. Robert H. Laughlin of Kinburn, Ont., eldest son of Mrs. Harriet Laughlin and the late Mr. Thomas Laughlin.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Paton. Mrs. Paton, the minister's wife, presided at the piano, playing the wedding march.

Miss Ethna Vrooman only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Vrooman of Kingston and niece of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Gerald W. Payne of Forester Falls, a cousin of the groom, and at present a student of theology at Queen's University, was best man.

The bride was attired in a floor length gown of royal blue, suede lace and carried a nosegay of mixed roses and carnations.

The bridesmaid was dressed in a turquoise blue taffeta trimmed with coral velvet.

The groom's gift to the bride was a week-end bag and cheque; to the bridesmaid an evening bag; to the pianist an evening bag; and inlaid cufflinks to the best man.

A buffet luncheon was served, after which the bridal couple left for New York city via the Thousand Island International bridge returning by way of Montreal. They will reside at Kinburn, Ont.

Deaths and Funerals

MRS. ROBERT CLARK

Mrs. Robert Clark, 75, of 15 Al-wington avenue, died suddenly at her residence Thursday morning.

Mrs. Clark, formerly Agnes May Buck, was born in Portsmouth, daughter of the late Captain Matthew Buck and Mrs. Buck, the former Kathrine Strickland. She lived in Portsmouth all her life, attending the former Methodist church, now the United Church.

Besides her husband she is survived by three sons, Arthur and Kenneth, both doctors in Madina, N.Y., and Keith, of Kingston, and a daughter, Mrs. James Whyman, (Norma), of Kingston. 11 Sep 53

MARGARET DWYER

Margaret Dwyer, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dwyer, of 303 King street, Peterborough, died in Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, on Wednesday, from injuries and shock, following an accident on Tuesday afternoon when her father was taking the family for a ride in his truck.

the Kingston district.

Miss Terese McGrath, social worker among cancer patients, reports a substantial increase in requests for dressings from cancer patients in recent months.

Mrs. Dwyre is the former Johanna Cooper, of Kingston.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Victory avenue and Peel street, Lindsay, when the truck her father was driving hit a bump in the road and the door of the truck flew open, throwing Mrs. Dwyre and her daughter onto the road. The child was crushed under the wheel of the truck.

Besides her parents, the youngster is survived by two brothers, Kenneth and William, and a sister, Diane, all of Peterborough, and her grandfather, George Cooper, 42 Ordnance street, Kingston.

The body will be brought to Kingston by train at 6:15 p.m.
this evening to Cain's funeral home. Funeral will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock to St.
Mary's Cemetery.

MRS. HARRY BRYANT

The funeral of Mrs. Harry Bryant, formerly Joane Maggie Moxley, who died in Oakville, Ont., was held from the R. J. Reid funeral parlors. Rev. O. L. Davidson conducted the service and interment was in Cataraqui Cemetery.

Mrs. Bryant was born in Kings-

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

I have several items that may or may not help you in your search for the Guild-Hughson line but I shall give them to you for what they are worth.

The enclosed letter was sent me by my cousin, Dayton. Since these Hughsons were from New York, I thought it might have some bearing on our branch.

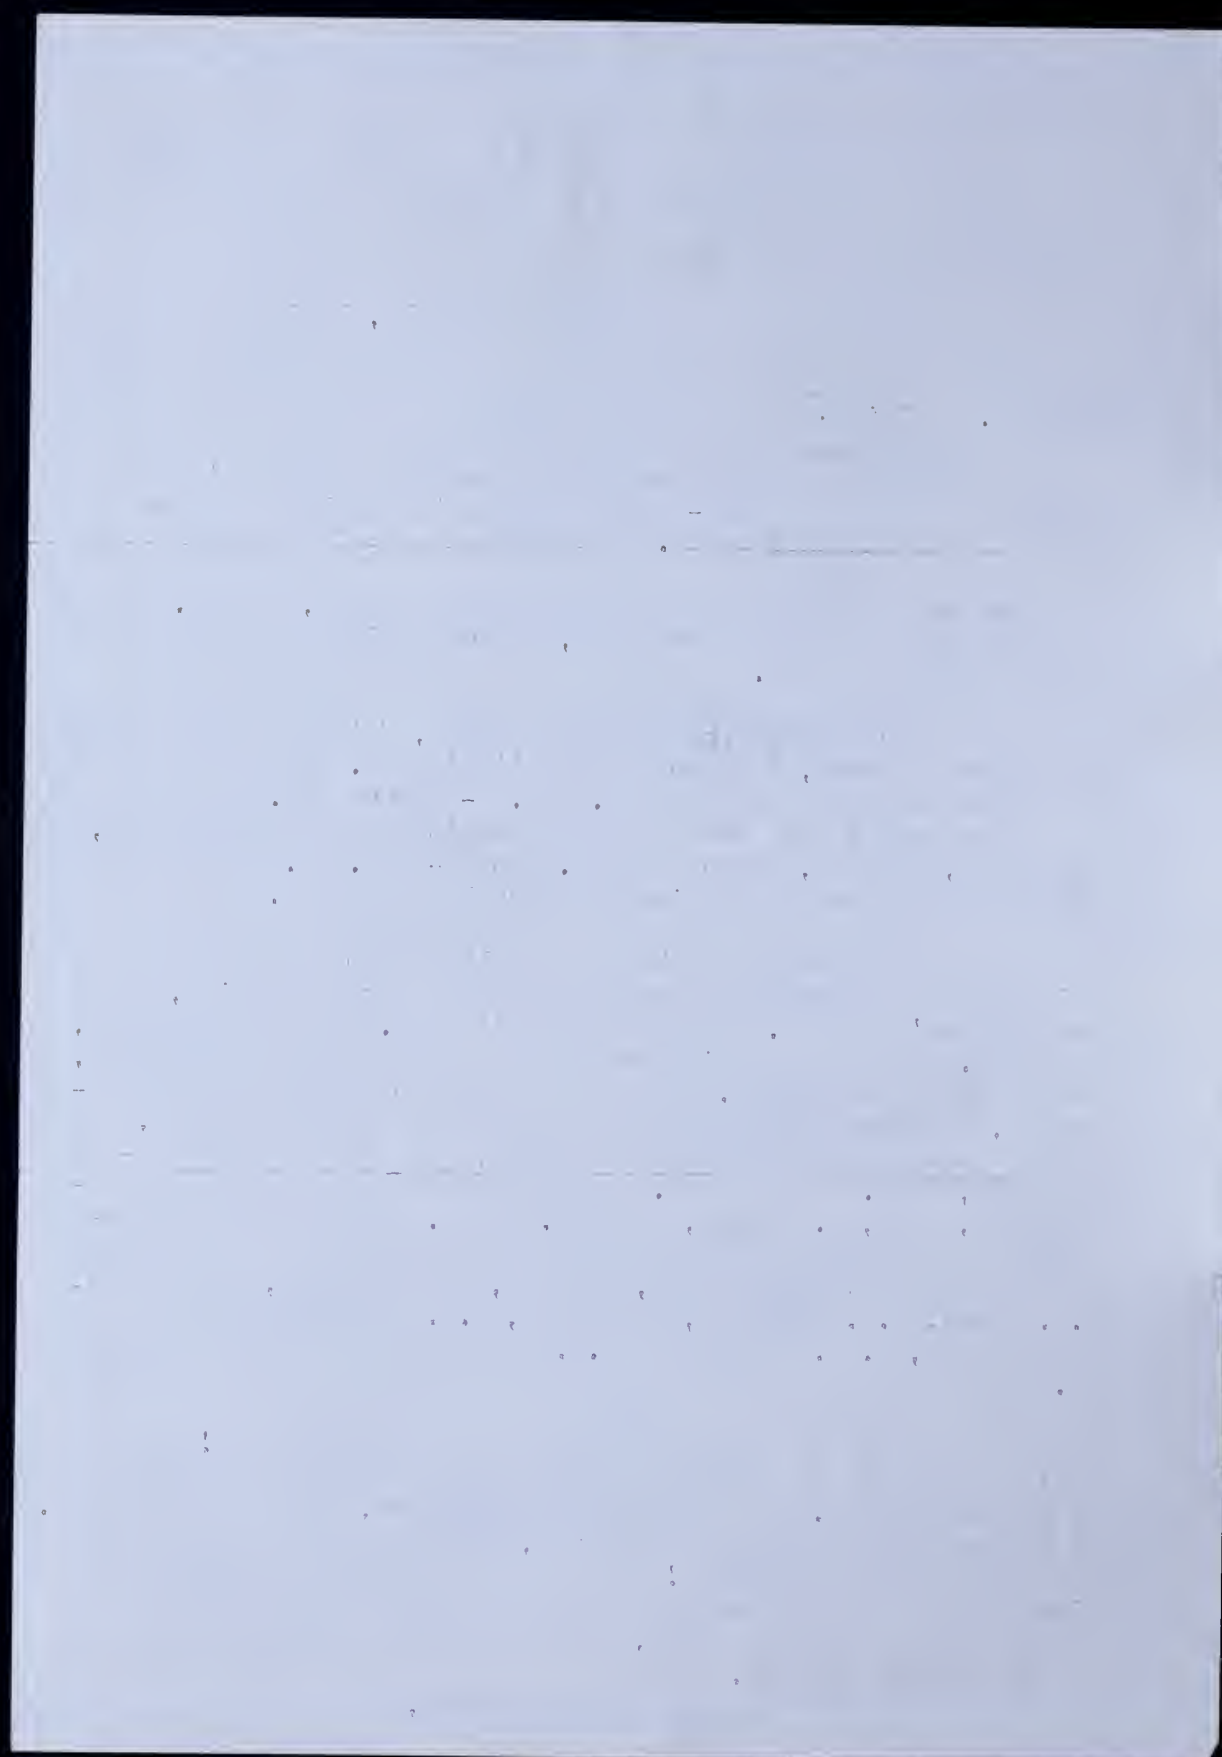

Another cousin has come across a book, "Dictionary of English and Welsh Surnames", Geneological Publishing Co. (with special instances (american) by Bardsly. 929.4 - B236d2 Ref.

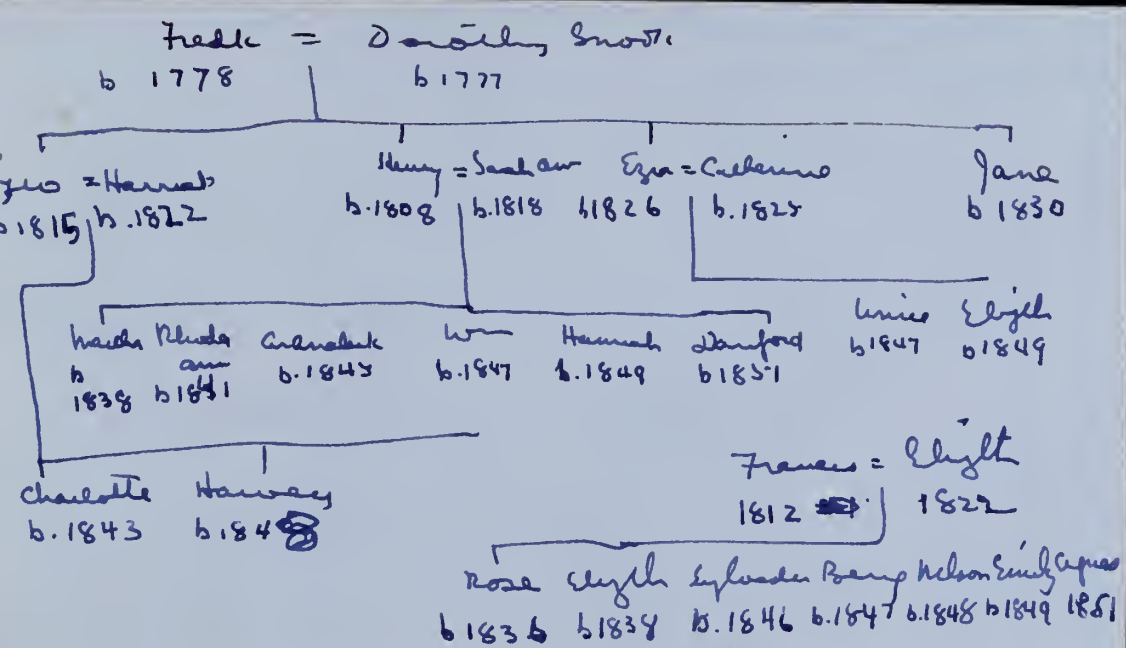

There are a good many Hughsons mentioned coming from Work, Liverpool, Chester, London and St. George- Han. Sq. and the dates of the assorted entries are from 1379 to 1759.

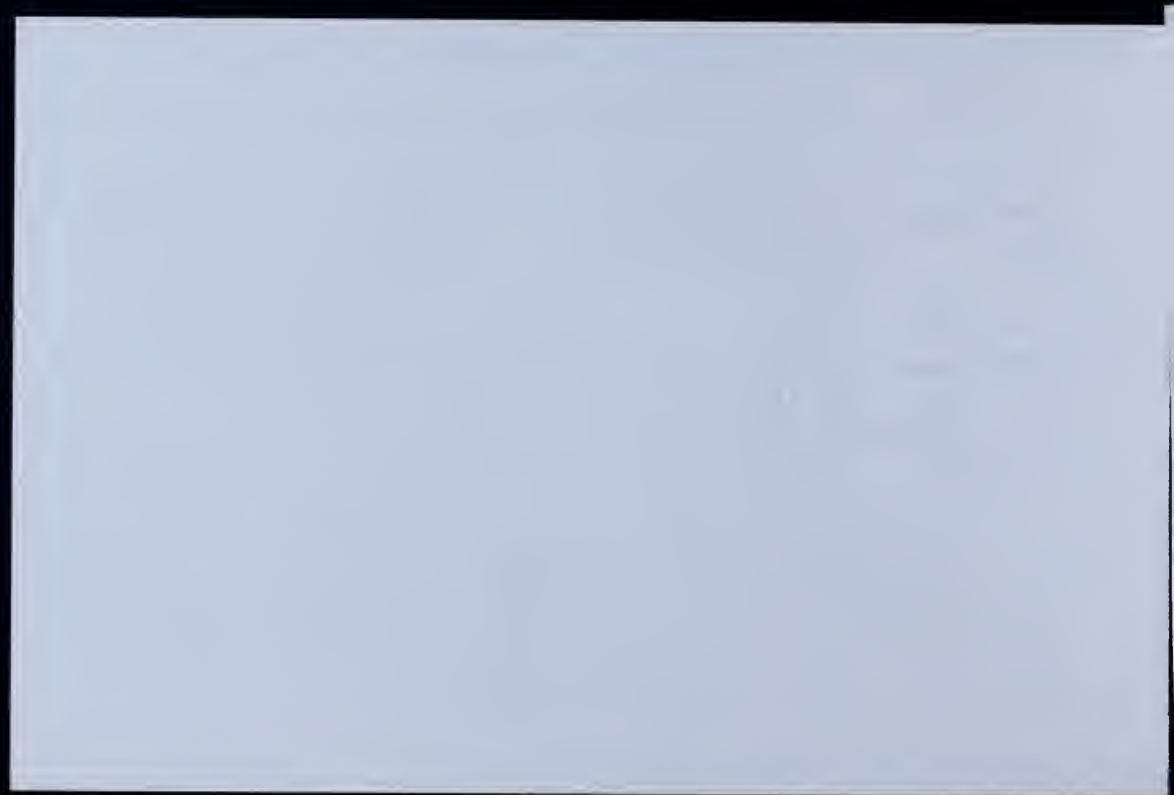

I have come across 2 photograph albums among my mothers things and I believe they once belonged to Mary Ann Guild, my Grandfather's sister. She married William L. Gibbard in Oneida, New York. She was born in Woodstock and he was born in Napanee, according to my records. Since there are no names on the photographs, I removed them to see what I could find on the back. The only names mentioned were Sue Smith, Miss Carrie Harriss - Richmond, Robt. Parker Junr. Age 25 and Henrietta Parker Age 19- April 12, 1866, A. German, and Prs. Wales. I listed the Photographers and will send their names if you want them but they are from the following towns; Toronto, Campbellford, Belleville, C.W. Orono, C.W. Napanee, Strathroy, C.W. and then a couple from Onwida, N. Y. What does C.W. mean? I have not come across it.

We have had the wettest winter anyone can remember. It is still raining every 3 or 4 days and of course it is impossible to do any farming. In this agricultural area, that is a disaster. It has been too cool for any growth, so perhaps the farmers have saved their seed and labor. We have been fortunate in not having flooding but the west part of the county was covered and the land is just beginning to dry out. We hope you have had a good winter and have remained well.

Sincerely, Mildred

BUCK

Dox II2, Bath, Ont.,
June 3, 1976

Dear Dr. Durleigh,

Enclosed find the information that I found at Fonda. At present I am more confused than ever but perhaps the new Buck in the family will be of some help. At any rate, I am hopefully waiting to hear from him and thus start up some new correspondence.

Incidentally, Dean Babcock has arrived safely home in Edmonton and made the trip, so I am told, in three days. Having driven there myself, it seems rather incredible, but this is the story I received. All I can say is that he is a better man than I or else he must have flown. He is already talking about coming back by plane later on in the summer.

Irene and I enjoyed our trip and, despite the rain, had a nicetrip back. We came by way of Carthage and Black River and were home in good time. We both hope that you equally enjoyed yourself and that the trip was a success. Irene tells me that the town called Middleburg has a much better reference set-up than Fonda. At least that is what the manager of the local book store told her.

Will keep in touch.

Charles

By the way, Art. Bell and I were at Dorland cemetery to-day and I found another Duck grave stone. Dean told me about it and evidently they lived on the old Platt farm.

Again, some of this was submitted by Geo. Duck of East St.
Louis. What bearing this has on me is a good question. I am hoping that the other Duck at Salt Point may be able to give me some of the answers. The one baptism - that of Andreas - certainly must have some connection. Surely there were not two Martin Ducks.

stands: 63 grandchildren, 143 great grandchildren, and 4 great great-grandchildren. Mr. Sueh has many relics of the long ago. among them a pair of spectacles. The contrast between these and the glasses of today was fully demonstrated when the reporter laid his glassy optics beside the heirloom. The ancient "specs" were made of common window glass and heavy steel. The rims, very much rusted, were nearly a quarter of an inch in thickness and the bows as wide and as thick as the blade of a penknife. The glass was round in shape.

Mrs. Joseph Buck
nee Minnie Margaret Vanalstine

Kingston

d Apr 4, 1918 aged 31 yrs.

Funeral from residence of her father, Nicholas Vanalstine, Mill St., Napanee.

HIRAM HUGHSON

He was born November 22, 1840 at Middleburg, Schoharie County, New York, the fifth of six sons and four daughters. His father was Nicholas M. Hughson, son of George Hughson, a farmer and old time Whig, who lost his right arm fighting the British in the Revolutionary War.

Nicholas Hughson was a native of New York City and grew up a successful farmer in Schoharie County. He was prominent both as a Republican and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He married Miss Charlotte Duncan a native of Edinburgh, Scotland. Her father was Charles S. Duncan, also a farmer, who spent most of his free time as a traveling preacher for the Methodist church.

Hiram Hughson came to California via Panama and the steamer "Star of the West", in 1857. He arrived at San Francisco on Christmas night and spent one week there. He then went to Marysville, where he clerked in a store for one year and a half. The gold fever then caught up with him and he went into the mines at Monte Cristo. After 6 months he went to the Fraser Mines in British Columbia, where for seven months he struggles to make good what he had steadily lost. He finally worked his way back to San Francisco and went back to Marysville to work for a George Walton on a cattle ranch for six months.

He then, with a John Campbell, started hauling beef to the mines and was so successful that he decided to go into the cattle business for himself. The venture was a success, but for some reason he decided to go back to New York, and he took over the management of his brother's dry goods store.

Mr. Hughson came back to California and invested in the Modesto and Stockton areas with money he had made from another hauling venture, this one to the mines of Virginia City and Gold Hill, Nevada.

While living at Stockton, he married Miss Luella Avery from Keokuck, Lee County, Iowa. Her father's name was Demas Avery; her mother's maiden name Mary Ried. They were natives of New York who also came to California, via Panama after living in Iowa for some years. The Hiram Hughsons were the parents of ten children, nine of whom lived to adulthood. The family moved to Modesto in 1901. The town of Hughson, in Stanislaus County, California, was established in 1907 and named for Hiram Hughson. He died at Modesto on January 15th, 1911.

The above letter was sent to Kenny Hughson, grandson of Dayton Hughson, when he wrote to the Chamber of Commerce in Hughson, California, inquiring about the name of the town.
